Please Pray for the Following People

(Why people want prayers isn't important, the prayers are!)

The Hommer Family, † John Gourley and family, and † Nancy Snyder and family.

Parishioners & Family Members on Active Duty:

Matthew Reitzel

To add a name call Dan Alpers, at 363-6130, ext. 100. Names will be listed for 4 weeks and may be renewed. †, Recently deceased will be listed for two weeks.

Stewardship Corner

Abraham was prepared to sacrifice his only son, Isaac. St. Paul reminds us that God Himself “did not spare His own Son.” Are my gifts to the Lord – of my resources, of my time, of myself – also sacrificial?

Service to Others

Metro Catholic Outreach

We Are OUT of Bus Passes

Bus passes are such a needed item for our Cedar Rapids folks without housing or transportation.

After two generous donations from St. John and All Saints parishioners, we have handed out every last pass. Several clients each day are asking for them. Please consider this donation.

https://www.cedar-rapids.org/residents/city\_buses/passes.php

A Unique Request

Wheeled luggage is great for a homeless client to keep and transport food and a change of clothes. We have several requests for these each week. Wheeled luggage or any type of cart or wagon is also appreciated for folks without vehicles who pick up the heavy bags of groceries from our food pantry. Each distribution day we have clients coming on foot, and any type of wheeled cart is always a hit.

2023 Tax Documents Have Been Mailed

Anyone who donated more than $250 to MCO in 2023 should have received your tax verification in the mail. (This applies to monetary donations only.) If you happened to donate online, we may not have your mailing address, but you should have received an email confirmation at the time you donated. Contact our office if you have not received the needed documents. Thank you to all our wonderful donors!

Faith Formation in Haiti

Faith Formation in Haiti

By Peg Schmitz

Prize Question: How many Catholic dioceses are there in Haiti?

(Hint: the answer is in the article below. Please deposit your response, name, phone number or email in the little red schoolhouse near the Haiti display case by the parish office, or submit your answer at bit.ly/HaitiLentQuiz by Friday morning.)

LEARN

Catholicism is the official religion of Haiti. According to 2018 estimates, 60% of the population are Catholic, and 29.5% are Protestant. Haitian Vodou, which combines elements of Christianity with traditional African religious beliefs, is widely practiced. It is estimated that 50-80% of Haitians incorporate some elements of Vodou culture or practice with another religion; Vodou has been an official religion since 2003.

There are ten dioceses in Haiti, 251 parishes and 1,500 Christian rural communities. The Haitian clergy has 400 diocesan priests and 300 seminarians. There are also 1,300 religious missionary priests belonging to over 70 congregations. Of the estimated 11,470,261 Haitian population, a little over 6 million identify as Catholic. That means Haiti has one ordained priest for every 3,711 Catholics. In comparison, the US Religious Census reported in 2022 there is one priest for every 2,000 Catholics in the United States (see also - USCCB data).

All Saints became a sister parish to Notre Dame de Lourdes in 2000, and since that time Fr. Antonio was the only priest to assume full time residence in the parish. Only one priest, Fr. Magloire was a diocesan priest. The rest of the priests assigned to Notre Dame de Lourdes have come from the Redemptorist missionaries who have their home base at St. Gerard parish in Port au Prince. Because of the difficulty of access to many of the 24 chapels, a priest often visits them only once or twice a year, mostly by foot or on donkey.

Our current priest and his associate pastor had planned on living in the parish but due to gang activity they have had to continue to reside at the Redemptorist home parish of St. Gerard. They both make chauffeured trips via motorcycle or by donkey which allows them to take the less traveled roads and avoid confrontations with gangs.

Sacristans are assigned to each chapel in our parish, who assist our priest when he visits. They manage church-related functions in between visits, and the parish priest sends them to the diocese for faith formation. Our travel teams have also provided faith formation in conjunction with teacher training on more than one occasion.

When the parish priest can visit one of the more remote chapels, Sunday Mass may include multiple baptisms, first communions, confirmations, and marriages (sometimes all four sacraments at one Mass!).

We have discovered that baptismal certificates are particularly important. According to a recent Haitian Times article, about 3 million Haitians have no birth certificate and do not officially exist. (6) We have seen parishioners of Notre Dame de Lourdes proudly show their baptism certificate, which for many in our parish is the only type of official documentation proving their existence!

DO

Attend a daily Mass, adoration or stop by church to pray. Give thanks for the abundance in our lives and pray that the people of Haiti's suffering and oppression will be lessened.

PRAY

More than anything, Haiti needs our prayers right now. Please pray for the people of Haiti as they H.O.P.E. for the end of chaos and the return of peace to their country. This week in particular, we reflect on their faith formation challenges:

- Help one another through prayer. Pray that parishioners in our sister parish gain increased access to the sacraments and Mass.
- Open one's heart to God and fellow man. Give thanks for the abundant access we have to the sacraments and Masses at All Saints.
- Pray daily for world peace. Pray for peace and safety for the people of Notre Dame de Lourdes.
- Enable to give others strength through our example. Take time to attend a daily Mass or adoration and give thanks in prayer for the abundance of God's gifts.

Thank you for your support of our parish mission in Haiti. We would love to have you join the Haiti committee. We need your talents to continue supporting our sister parish.

If you would like to give financially, visit allsaintscr.churchcenter.com/giving and use the dropdown menu to select "Haiti Education." You may also send a check to All Saints with "Haiti Education" on the notes line. Each gift helps support our Sister Parish through education, faith formation, pastoral functions and urgent needs. In particular, our sister parish experienced crop failure due to drought last fall, which means they need seeds for their spring planting. Your generosity will help us send $5,000 to Haiti to help farmers purchase seeds.

Yes, Lord, I Believe

Yes, Lord, I Believe: A Sing-Along Celebration of the Creed

By Peg Schmitz, Faith Formation Commission

I hope you are enjoying your copy of “Yes, Lord, I Believe”. If you don’t have a copy yet, there are still some available at the front and back entrances of the church. John Burland is the songwriter of “Yes, Lord, I Believe” and author of the book. He is a religious educator who wrote the song to help children learn the Apostles’ Creed. The song gained popularity and has been used to engage many children in learning the articles of the Apostles’ Creed. You can listen to the song by following this link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MzCJEqIHCI>

The Apostles’ Creed can be traced back as early as the second century. The creed was intended to help articulate the foundational aspects of the Catholic faith against heresy, specifically Gnosticism, which denied Christ’s incarnation, divine creation, salvation by faith in Christ and the deity of Christ.

But as the Catholic faith spread throughout the world, gaining many new followers, it required a common language to express the beliefs of the church. The Apostles’ Creed serves as a concise summary of Catholics’ beliefs and the core aspects of the Scripture and God’s teachings. It was a great choice to provide that common language for our church worldwide.

I hope this booklet and song may help the younger members of your family learn this beautiful profession of our Catholic beliefs. And that adults enjoy the opportunity to reflect on this prayer that represents what we as Catholics profess to believe.

From Bishop Oscar Romero

This Lent, which we observe amid blood and sorrow, ought to presage a transfiguration of our people, a resurrection of our nation. The church invites us to a modern form of penance, of fasting and prayer – perennial Christian practices, but adapted to the circumstances of each people.

Lenten fasting is not the same thing in those lands where people eat well as is a Lent among our third-world peoples, undernourished as they are, living in a perpetual Lent, always fasting. For those who eat well, Lent is a call to austerity, a call to give away in order to share with those in need. But in poor lands, in homes where there is hunger, Lent should be observed in order to give to the sacrifice that is everyday life the meaning of the cross.

But it should not be out of a mistaken sense of resignation. God does not want that. Rather, feeling in one's own flesh the consequences of sin and injustice, one is stimulated to work for social justice and a genuine love for the poor. Our Lent should awaken a sense of social justice.

A Note From the Beeler Family

“The wonderful sense of community among teachers, staff and families is what initially drew us in when our oldest daughter started preschool at All Saints many years ago. Since then, our children have loved being a part of this community of believers, where they’ve been given a chance to become the person God created them to be. All Saints uses the Catholic faith as the foundation for all learning and the children are both supported and challenged to grow spiritually, physically, and academically every day. The small class size and attention to individual needs that the wonderful teachers provide, has been a blessing to our children.”

“We love the annual Sock Hop at the end of Catholic Schools Week that the older kids even come back to once they’ve moved on to middle school and high school! The Art Fair and Write-On event is another favorite where the students get to showcase their creativity and practice their public speaking! They learn how to write and physically create a book and then get to read it to a group of students and parents on that special night.”

“All Saints provides so many opportunities for students to grow. Our favorites: service projects, student-led school Mass, weekly STEM activities, the accelerated reading program, the wax museum project, music concerts, band, Stations of The Cross, Adoration, prayer services, Grandparent’s day, holiday classroom parties, celebrating Saints’ feast days, pet blessings, the living rosary and so many more!”

“All Saints really feels like home to our family and we are so thankful for finding this community.”

Finding Mountaintop Experiences In the Everyday

Jesus takes Peter, James and John to a high mountain to be alone and pray. While they are there the apostles see Jesus in a whole new way. Jesus is transfigured. His clothes become a dazzling white and they see Elijah and Moses conversing with him.

Jesus often goes off to pray and sit alone in silence, and he encourages his disciples to pray in the same way. On one special day, Jesus takes Peter, James and John with him as he climbs to the top of a mountain for solitude and prayer. On the mountain, the apostles' quiet prayer is rewarded as they experience the awesomeness of God. Jesus is transformed as he converses with Moses and Elijah.

Mountaintop experiences aren't just for the disciples, and they aren't limited to the saints. Regular, everyday folks sometimes have their own experiences of the awesomeness of God. These encounters don't happen often, but the experience can carry someone through a lifetime.

Mountaintop experiences are sometimes a surprise, an unexpected, overwhelming experience of the divine. We see a sunset or watch the miracle of birth, and we are absolutely overwhelmed by a feeling of fullness and peace. We experience the sacred at our very center and also all around us. Mountaintop experiences can also be a gift received after weeks or years of faithful waiting in silent prayer.

Introduce your children to the prayer of silence by praying with them. Find a quiet spot and sit very still, consciously relax your body. Tell your children to pay attention to their breathing. Ask them to say Jesus' name quietly with every breath they take in or let out. Thirty seconds is enough to begin this quiet prayer with children. When they are comfortable in the prayer, you can extend the time.

The peace and joy of quiet prayer leaves us open to encounter the awesomeness of God in the sacred spaces of our heart. The secret is to be faithful to this prayer, keeping a quiet watch with the Lord on a regular basis.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Practice the prayer of silence together. Follow the directions in the fourth paragraph above. Talk about the experience.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

Do you think you might be able to find ten minutes a day for this quiet prayer? If so, what time of the day is best for you? In the space below, write down how you feel about making such a commitment. What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?
