Welcome, Bob!

I would like to introduce myself as Adult Formation Director of All Saints Parish. My wife Pam and I have been members of All Saints since 2004 and have been active in many areas of the Catholic church and parish. Our journey started in 1973 when our parish priest came over for dinner and asked me for $20 dollars. When gave it to him he said great I just signed you up for a Marriage Encounter.

Pam and I have been involved with the following church sponsored events. CEW Christian Experience Weekend, Life in the Spirit Seminars, TEC Teens encounter Christ, as well as many parish events and programs. We also developed a Motivational Gifts Ministry which we shared with an estimated 10,000 people over 50 years.

As we journey Our mission statement: Love God - Serve Others - Form Disciples unites us personally as a parish., we are called to personally encounter Jesus Christ anew, answer Christ's call to follow him, and help others to do the same.

God created us all in His image, but also as unique individuals. We are at different spots in our journey which can mean a variety of interests, and time available. With that in mind we will offer classes, short courses, study groups, weekend and day retreats, and special events.

Some of the initial topics we are planning is a Study of the Mass made simple, classes on discovering your spiritual gifts, and collecting God Stories "Holy Moments" from members of the parish.

The goal of all that we do is to invite all persons at all stages of the spiritual life to come to know Jesus and His Church in new and deeper ways. As we grow: evolve as individuals and as a parish, we invite your participation, feedback, and suggestions.

Be able to strengthen your faith, "always ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope" (1 Peter 3:15), with prayer, with education, with charity. Be always joyful and zealous so that, also through your work, 'in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and dominion' (1 Peter 4:11).

Our Parish has a rich history. I am looking forward to serving and sharing All Saints Parish with all of you.

Returning this Fall

I write to ask every Catholic woman in the Archdiocese of Dubuque to consider joining the Catholic Daughters of the Americas (CDA) as a member. For some of you that means right at your local parish, and for others that may mean at a neighboring parish. Visit www.iowacatholicdaughters.org for more information and to find a local chapter.

The Catholic Daughters is one of the oldest and largest organizations for Catholic women having been founded in 1903, and is dedicated to the principles of “unity and charity”. Today the CDA focuses on the concerns of a contemporary church and society as well as issues that affect the well-being of women and children. CDA offers the opportunity for women to come together to share their faith as well as in service to their church and civic communities.

Thank you for your continued support of the Catholic Daughters.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Rev. Richard E. Pates
Apostolic Administrator of Dubuque

Green Prairie Garden News - Christine Kirpes, Garden Coordinator

We are in the midst of peak production and have brought in 200-300 lbs of veggies to our pantry each week. Our hardy gardeners are watering daily in the heat and spending hours harvesting. It can be a bit strenuous but so rewarding. This 10th season of our garden at Prairiewoods is going well! Sweet potato harvest has commenced, so in a few weeks we'll be able to give them out to our clients. We hope to beat our total production of 3200 lbs last year.

YOU or YOUR SERVICE GROUP can help grow food for the hungry!

Cedar Rapids Metro Area Divorce Ministry

Surviving Divorce is a facilitated, small-group Catholic conversation that is endorsed and promoted by the Archdiocese of Dubuque. The sessions are a 12-week process and are led by trained facilitators using the program: Surviving Divorce, published by Ascension. The local team for Surviving Divorce has planned the Fall session:

The sessions will run on Tuesday evenings, September 12th to December 5th 2023, from 6-7:30pm at St. Joseph.

This is our twenty-ninth session in the Cedar Rapids metro area since beginning in the winter of 2009. We have trained staff members who function as the directors of the program from each parish in our Deanery. All session facilitators are parishioners who have personally experienced divorce and are trained through our Archdiocese.

If you have questions about our upcoming Surviving Divorce session, please contact Cate Biro at catie22001@yahoo.com or call the parish office.

Secular Franciscans from fraternities across Iowa are gathering at St. Pius on September 24, 2023 for their annual retreat. Secular Franciscans are lay men and women, married or single, who profess to live the gospel life according to the charism of St. Francis of Assisi (even Pope Pius X was a Secular Franciscan!). The gathering will begin with liturgy at 10:30, followed by lunch and presentation on St. Clare of Assisi. The day ends at 3pm. If you have thought about deepening your religious commitment or would like to know more about Secular Franciscans, you are welcome to join us in Pastors Hall after mass. Please call Ann Weltin OFS at (563) 590-6302 to register.

Thank You!

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Staff at Green Square Meals, we would like to thank All Saints for being a Hole Sponsor in our 2023 golf tournament, "The Locher", that was held at Airport National Golf Course on August 26. Your participation contributed to the overall success of our event. Thank you!

Cold Weather is Coming... Prepare With a Quilt

All Saints Quilters present our 2023 quilt, "Girls in Ruby". Edna Lindenbush's wonderful embroider is the centerpiece of this quilt. Blocks are trimmed with red and ivory cotton fabrics. Tickets are $2 each or 3 for $5. They will be available after masses on certain dates and also in the church office during office hours. Thank you for your support.

Cold Weather is Coming... Kids Will Need Coats

It's that time of year again. Evenings are giving us just enough of a chill that we instinctively reach for a hoodie, a jacket, or even (shivers - pun intended) that winter coat. Problem is, we know that not everyone has a decent winter coat. I know that I'll be making a trip down to Williamsburg to the Columbia outlet store to see what they have on the rack. But we know that not everyone has that luxury. That's why the Knights of Columbus folks do what they do. And they're doing it RIGHT NOW! In the main entry way, you'll find their box with this 'place donations here' sign.

Need I say more? Nope! Didn't think so. Let's do what we do and keep folks warm this winter. It'll be here sooner than we think.

You Are Cordially Invited...

Welcome to the Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. First, I want to thank Dan Alpers, our awesome Office Manager and Director of Social Media for pinch hitting for me in my absence. Dan, you are fantastic and I appreciate you! And as it turns out, the readings for this week focus on the theme of forgiveness which is a naturally continuation of Dan's reflection last week.

One of the podcasts that I listen to on a regular basis recently had a series that talked about the verb "neighboring": what it means and how to best put it into practice. I feel that the quick growth of social media contributed to the decline of neighboring and the pandemic certainly added greatly to it. After listening to this podcast series, I had to agree with the author - we have lost the ability and perhaps even the desire to communicate in person with one another. Replying with an LOL (laugh out loud) to a text from a friend is a far cry from sharing a hearty laugh together in response to a one-on-one conversation. We may try to justify this change by pointing out that through social media one can connect with people who may have been lost over the years and with more people than one could reasonably stay in contact with in person. All valid arguments, but...simply staying in contact with someone is not the same as having a genuine relationship with them. Focusing on quantity versus quality simply fills the void of time, it does not feed the soul.

During his ministry on earth, Jesus had much to say about neighboring. How we are to love another and treat one another. Jesus knows that as humans, we fail often. When we pray, attend Mass, and regularly receive the Eucharist, we are strengthened and healed. Through God's grace, we are able to rise above many of our failings. The book of Sirach reminds us that, "Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight." I have personally found that doing this leads to many little deaths including the foundation of charity and friendships. Paul encourages us to let forgiveness reign in our hearts, for "none of us lives for oneself." We live to love God, each other and to serve God and each other. How do we best do that? By keeping love and forgiveness strong in our hearts and our actions; by being a good neighbor.

And so, I invite you to Mass (and then the next and the next...) If you know someone who has been absent or who is seeking God to come into their life, invite them to join you! Love God - Serve Others - Form Disciples.

Praying and hoping with you always.

Announcing Archbishop-elect Zinkula

Dubuque, Iowa – Pope Francis has appointed Most Reverend Thomas R. Zinkula, Bishop of Davenport, as Archbishop of Dubuque. Archbishop-elect Zinkula is scheduled to be installed as the archdiocese's eleventh archbishop on Wednesday, October 18.

Archbishop-elect Zinkula reflected upon his appointment to Dubuque in a statement, saying, "Although I will be sad to leave the Diocese of Davenport in a couple of months, where the diocesan community taught me how to be a bishop and we walked together on our common faith journey, I am humbled and overjoyed to receive the appointment to return to my home diocese to serve as the eleventh archbishop of the Archdiocese of Dubuque."

Forgiveness

Jesus is asked how many times we must forgive someone. “Is seven times enough?” a follower asks. Jesus tells them, “Not seven times, but seven times seven.” Jesus goes on to tell a parable about a worthless servant whose huge debt is mercifully forgiven. However, when the servant then refuses mercy to a fellow servant for a much smaller debt, the master punishes him.

Forgiveness is a tricky thing. Sometimes it is easy to forgive: something is broken accidentally or someone unknowingly steps on our toes. But at other times it is not so easy; someone will do something or say something and we want to strike back. That impulse is even stronger in small children who are just beginning to learn to temper their feelings.

I remember years ago watching my daughter-in-law Deborah comfort her three year old as he screamed and kicked his frustration. “Use your words,” she kept saying in a calm voice. Her one arm was around him as the other gently rubbed his back. Given the time to express his hurt and anger, Nicholas settled down and the story came out.

His playmate had punched him, and he wanted payback. After a few minutes of listening and some quiet soothing, Deborah was able to counsel her little one into a more appropriate response.

My grandson’s reaction is fairly common. It seems a natural response to strike out when we have been struck, to hit back harder, to yell louder. Yet as Christians we are called to follow Jesus, learning from the cross a lesson that rejects the proverb, “an eye for eye” and sets a new agenda for the world. We are asked to forgive seven times seven.

Deborah set a wise path for her youngster. It is one we can all follow and foster in our families. Take time to settle down before responding in anger or frustration and then “use your words.”

Sometimes that means going to the offending party and talking things out. It might mean finding a good listener to help counsel. Finally, it is always a good idea to ask God’s help. As I watched Deb comfort Nicholas, I thought of what a beautiful image she was of God—the loving parent—always there to listen, soothe, counsel, and love.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Practice talking out a problem. Ask a family member who is angry with someone to share the story behind his anger. Help him to consider ways he can solve the problem in a positive way.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

What is your primary worry this week? What alternatives do you have in solving this concern? Where is God in this problem? What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?
