Communal Anointing of the Sick During Mass March 11 & 12

During his ministry on earth, Jesus had a particular concern for sick people; he healed them not just with a word of power, but also with a human and compassionate touch.

The Anointing of the Sick, like all sacraments, is one way that the church continues the ministry of Jesus. Through it, Christ continues to touch, heal, and comfort. The Letter of James attests that this practice has always been part of ministry: "Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the church" (5:14).

While the sacrament is often administered individually, the church encourages celebrating it within Mass. Many parishes celebrate it on one or more Sundays each year. The sacrament may be received by a baptized person who "begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age," according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1514)—seriously ill, but not necessarily near death—so it may not be apparent that someone receiving the sacrament is ill. The communal celebration reminds us that suffering is part of our human condition and may move us to look on each other with the compassion of Christ the healer. Celebrating this sacrament during Mass also helps us unite our sufferings with Christ's as we recall his body broken and his blood poured out for us.

Nomination Weekend is March 4 & 5

Parish Elections for Council positions will be held soon! Please pray about who you would like to represent you on Pastoral Council, Finance Council, Board of Education and Faith Formation Commission. We will collect your recommendations at Masses on March 4 & 5, in preparation for elections May 6 & May 7. Self nominations are always welcome. Nominations may also be left in the parish office before March 6th. Nomination forms will be available soon.

Scrip News

- We have new items in stock: Donutland in $10 and $25 cards, and McDonald's in $10 cards
 - We are welcoming new local merchants to participate in our scrip program! Contact Lori at scrip@allsaintscr.com for more details.

- Volunteers Needed

We are always looking for additional volunteers to participate in our scrip program! In which other ministry can you financially help our parish, our parish school, our school families, AND several church ministries, all without any additional cost to you?

Scrip's top volunteer need today: adults to sell scrip after Mass. It only takes a few minutes before Mass, 20-30 minutes after Mass, and it's always at least two people working together. Right now, scrip is sold after Masses only on the first full weekend of the month, due to lack of volunteers. The more people we have, the more often we can have scrip available after Mass. Email Lori at scrip@allsaintscr.com to learn more.

More scrip information is available online! Scan the code to visit our website: sites.google.com/view/aptscrip.

As always, scrip is available anytime at RaiseRight.com, plus order forms and drop boxes are in both the parish and school entryways.

Thanks for supporting All Saints!

Stewardship involves more than just the gift we bring to the altar. Today's readings say clearly that it is fidelity to God's law that makes our offering acceptable.

WHY USE EFT?

- Why do I use EFT? It's a convenient, no fee, worry-free way to make monthly donation to the organizations I support locally. I use EFT for several of my community giving contributions. And I receive emails confirming the date and amount. I can also make changes easily, at any time. EFT allows me to set up my donations and it automatically makes the withdrawals so I don't need to remember to do so. It allows me to support local organizations that I feel strongly about supporting financially, and All Saints is at the top of my list.— Kathy Harriott, Pastoral Council

All Saints Lenten Mission

Save the Date for the All Saints Mission!

When: March 26 and March 27, in the evening (official times coming soon)

Who: Deacon Allen Tatara

What: Recharging Your Spiritual Batteries

In many ways, our spiritual life is a lot like a cell phone battery. There are times when our “spiritual battery” is fully charged.

We’re into the Scriptures, our prayer life is healthy, our spiritual appetite is good, and our passion and enthusiasm is running high. But then there are times when our “spiritual battery” is low or even dead. We have no hunger for God’s word. We spend little or no time in prayer. Our spiritual passion is gone, and we’re just going through the motions in our spiritual life.

This mission (through Scripture, stories, humor, and song) will offer six spiritual practices that we need to follow to recharge our spiritual batteries in order to renew our strength, restore our joy, release our anxieties, rekindle our hope, and reconnect us with God.

Deacon Allen Tatara is a permanent deacon in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Ordained in 2009, he serves at St. Hubert Parish in Hoffman Estates, Illinois. He has been involved with teens and young adults for more than 30 years, and is blessed to work alongside his wife, Stephanie, as Youth Ministry Coordinators at the parish.

Deacon Allen is a dynamic and fiery speaker, preacher, storyteller, musician and evangelizer. He loves sharing his God-given gifts in his ministries and is truly humbled to be in service to God and his people. He ministers around the country at diocesan, school, and parish adult and youth events. He has motivated and inspired groups of all ages to a greater awareness of how to recognize God’s presence in their daily lives through his unique blend of storytelling, humor, audience participation, music, and deep-seeded spirituality.

What was your favorite activity or memory at All Saints?

One of my favorite memories at All Saints is one time at recess I was playing touch football because we can't play tackle. So the other team fumbled for the first time we ever fumbled and I dove to get it. I recovered it, made a decent pass, and switched to a receiver and made a huge one handed catch with my left hand and ran it just short of the touchdown, which we got the next play.

Beyond the Law

Jesus begins by telling us he has not come to abolish the Law but to fulfill it. The Ten Commandments are still the backbone of our faith. Indeed "...whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven." But in this Gospel, Jesus begins to put some flesh on those bones. It is not enough to follow the letter of the Law. Jesus' followers are called to do more.

In the first part of this reading Jesus seems to offer parents a freeway to the kingdom. It would seem the kingdom is ours if we live by the Ten Commandments and teach our children to do the same. However, as the reading goes on, Jesus tells us that his followers are challenged to do even more. To be Jesus' followers, we are to live beyond the letter of the law. For example, it is not enough to say we won't hurt anyone physically (the fifth commandment). Jesus tells us we are not to hurt anyone emotionally either. We must curb our anger. We shouldn't insult others, and we certainly don't call them names. Finally, if we have hurt someone, we offer a sincere apology and try to make amends.

This is definitely a lesson we teach our children by example. All parents lose their tempers occasionally. Regrettably, when I was raising my children, it was more than occasionally. Fortunately, I learned the importance of saying I was sorry once things had calmed down; and to say it with more than words. I would try to take their hand or sit close to them making sure to look them in the eyes. I would tell them I was wrong, not in the dispute perhaps, but in the way I'd handled it.

As time went on, I learned that by making myself admit I was wrong (something not easy for me to do) I became more aware of what triggered my temper. I learned to walk out of the room before exploding. And because I was modeling the behavior, it was easier for me to make sure my children did the same. Teaching children to admit they are wrong and say they are sorry to a sibling certainly bring us, and them, a little closer to the kingdom.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Ask each person to talk about the things that make them angry. Talk about how they feel when someone tells them they are sorry.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

If losing your temper is a problem, try to figure out the root cause of your anger. There are usually other issues behind a quick temper. Write a prayer for your anger issues, or for those who do.

You are Cordially Invited...

The Gospel for this weekend is a very powerful continuation of what we know as the Sermon on the Mount. In this Gospel, Jesus marries the past with the present and future. Remember that after centuries of oppression, repression and sometimes slavery, the Jewish faithful interpreted the words of the Old Testament prophets to mean that a mighty warrior was coming to save them. On the mountain, Jesus transforms those ideas, along with cultural beliefs and practices into something much bigger.

Recall that Jesus takes the disciples away from the crowds to redirect them away from the needs of humanity to the mission he has been sent to fulfill - that being the salvation of humanity. Thomas O'Meara in his book, God in the World: A Guide to Karl Rahner's Theology sums it up well, "Jesus the Christ is not the strict teacher of precise ecclesiastical laws and dogmas, but a primal force in humanity; he does not bring to a small community a few moments of salvation, but rather elevates humanity, religion, by grace." He continues, "Jesus, as Son of God, unfolds the mystery of being a human..."

Through Moses and the Ten Commandments, God revealed the "least" or ground level of what it meant to be human. In this first of Jesus' teachings, "[he] begins with the concrete...", that is the Ten Commandments. He tells the disciples that he has not come "to abolish but to fulfill." God's revelation through Moses was but the beginning. God, through his Son, Jesus, affirms these, but then "leads the hearers from external religion to an interior orientation." The Kingdom of God is not about rules and regulations. The Kingdom of God is about mercy and love and justice. Jesus defines those in terms of one's interior orientation or motivation, not by a defined outcome.

And so, one by one, Jesus redefines the Ten Commandments through the lens of the Kingdom of God. As Jesus states, the original is still true, but God, through Jesus, reveals additional layers which address the interior intent of the person, not just the final outcome.

When we do an Examination of Conscience at the end of the day or before the Sacrament of Reconciliation, do we use the "letter of the law" as our frame of reference for defining sin or do we include the interior state of our heart as well? God invites us to do the latter. Jesus brings color and light to the black and white letter of the law. We are called to love others, not because God tells us to do so, but because in allowing the Word of God to expand our hearts, we see God in others and elevate them to be called our brothers and sisters.

And so, I invite you to attend Mass this weekend (and then the next and the next...) If you know someone who has been absent or who is seeking God to come into their life, invite them to join you! Let's come together as a community of brothers and sisters, eager to let God reveal His love, grace and mercy to us made alive in the liturgy! Praying with you always.
