Communal Anointing of the Sick During Mass March 11 & 12

During his ministry on earth, Jesus had a particular concern for sick people; he healed them not just with a word of power, but also with a human and compassionate touch.

The Anointing of the Sick, like all sacraments, is one way that the church continues the ministry of Jesus. Through it, Christ continues to touch, heal, and comfort. The Letter of James attests that this practice has always been part of ministry: "Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint [him] with oil in the name of the church" (5:14).

While the sacrament is often administered individually, the church encourages celebrating it within Mass. Many parishes celebrate it on one or more Sundays each year. The sacrament may be received by a baptized person who "begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age," according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1514)—seriously ill, but not necessarily near death—so it may not be apparent that someone receiving the sacrament is ill. The communal celebration reminds us that suffering is part of our human condition and may move us to look on each other with the compassion of Christ the healer. Celebrating this sacrament during Mass also helps us unite our sufferings with Christ's as we recall his body broken and his blood poured out for us.

Nomination Weekend is March 4 & 5

Parish Elections for Council positions will be held soon! Please pray about who you would like to represent you on Pastoral Council, Finance Council, Board of Education and Faith Formation Commission. We will collect your recommendations at Masses on March 4 & 5, in preparation for elections May 6 & May 7. Self nominations are always welcome. Nominations may also be left in the parish office before March 6th. Nomination forms will be available soon.

Scrip News

- We have new items in stock: Donutland in $10 and $25 cards, and McDonald's in $10 cards
 - We are welcoming new local merchants to participate in our scrip program! Contact Lori at scrip@allsaintscr.com for more details.

- Volunteers Needed

We are always looking for additional volunteers to participate in our scrip program! In which other ministry can you financially help our parish, our parish school, our school families, AND several church ministries, all without any additional cost to you?

Scrip's top volunteer need today: adults to sell scrip after Mass. It only takes a few minutes before Mass, 20-30 minutes after Mass, and it's always at least two people working together. Right now, scrip is sold after Masses only on the first full weekend of the month, due to lack of volunteers. The more people we have, the more often we can have scrip available after Mass. Email Lori at scrip@allsaintscr.com to learn more.

More scrip information is available online! Scan the code to visit our website:

sites.google.com/view/aptscrip.

As always, scrip is available anytime at RaiseRight.com, plus order forms and drop boxes are in both the parish and school entryways.

Thanks for supporting All Saints!

Ash Wednesday Mass

Ash Wednesday is this week, February 22! All Saints will celebrate two Masses, 8:15 AM with our school, and 5:30 PM. Please come join us as we enter into the season of Lent.

Stewardship Corner

In today's first reading, the Israelites are urged to love their neighbors as themselves. In the Gospel, Jesus spells out how we are to do that --- to give generously to those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who seek to borrow.

All Saints Bible Study

Please join us for No Greater Love, a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us through His passion. Author Edward Sri guides us through the last hours of Christ's life, from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary. Every step of the way, Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism, and historical context shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death. Experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for you.

The study will run for 5 weeks, on Monday evenings from March 6 through April 3 at 7:00 PM on ZOOM or Wednesday afternoons from March 8 through April 5 at 3:00 PM. To register contact Mary Takes at tomta2@mchsi.com or Cate Biro at 319-721-3102.

The book and online videos can be purchased for $26.95 at: <https://ascensionpress.com/products/no-greater-love-study-pack>.

Everyday Stewardship

My pastor likes to say that his parents would always remind him to "leave a place you visited a little better than the way you found it." I have always tried to live by those words as well. The important word here is "tried" as I am sure that I have not always been successful.

The desire to always go a step further, to give even more than is required, is truly honorable. Jesus speaks to his disciples about this when he urges them to give more than what is asked and to travel two miles in service when all that was required of them is one. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to live the same way. It is fundamental to understanding a stewardship way of life.

True generosity has no limits. When we say that mature disciples are to answer the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost, we are inviting good stewards to embody this type of generosity. We can be the person who does not respond to the call, be the person who responds and gives what is required, or, finally, be the person who seeks to give above and beyond what is required. God doesn't just give us what we need, but he gives us more than we need. Made in his image, we are called to do the same. If we try to live in this manner every day, then we might just succeed in leaving this world a little better than the way we found it.

2023 Lent Plans

Please add to your calendars and plan to attend our events during Lent!

Ash Wednesday Mass: February 22, 8:15 AM and 5:30 PM

Lent Adoration: In addition to the Wednesday morning Adoration, we will also offer Adoration on Monday evenings from 5:30 PM—6:30 PM in the Chapel. The dates for evening Adoration are: February 27, March 6, 13, and 20.

Stations of the Cross and Mass: All Saints will host Stations of the Cross and Evening Mass on Tuesdays beginning at 5:30 PM in the church. Lenten Soup Suppers will immediately follow Mass in the Social Hall.

We will be hosting a Lenten Mission again this year. Save the Date to hear from Deacon Allen Tatara on March 26 and March 27 in the Social Hall.

All Saints will not be purchasing Lenten Devotionals this year due to a lack of interest in the Advent devotionals. A list of Lenten materials and online resources will be shared when FFC hosts Fellowship on February 18 and 19.

We hope that you can join us for all the Lenten events happening at our parish! Holy Week begins April 1.

All Saints Lenten Mission

Save the date for the All Saints Mission!

When: March 26 and March 27, 6:30—8:00 PM

Who: Deacon Allen Tatara

What: Recharging Your Spiritual Batteries

In many ways, our spiritual life is a lot like a cell phone battery.

There are times when our “spiritual battery” is fully charged.

We’re into the Scriptures, our prayer life is healthy, our spiritual appetite is good, and our passion and enthusiasm is running high. But then there are times when our “spiritual battery” is low or even dead. We have no hunger for God’s word. We spend little or no time in prayer. Our spiritual passion is gone, and we’re just going through the motions in our spiritual life.

This mission (through Scripture, stories, humor, and song) will offer six spiritual practices that we need to follow to recharge our spiritual batteries in order to renew our strength, restore our joy, release our anxieties, rekindle our hope, and reconnect us with God.

Deacon Allen Tatara is a permanent deacon in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Ordained in 2009, he serves at St. Hubert Parish in Hoffman Estates, Illinois. He has been involved with teens and young adults for more than 30 years, and is blessed to work alongside his wife, Stephanie, as Youth Ministry Coordinators at the parish.

Deacon Allen is a dynamic and fiery speaker, preacher, storyteller, musician and evangelizer. He loves sharing his God-given gifts in his ministries and is truly humbled to be in service to God and his people. He ministers around the country at diocesan, school, and parish adult and youth events. He has motivated and inspired groups of all ages to a greater awareness of how to recognize God’s presence in their daily lives through his unique blend of storytelling, humor, audience participation, music, and deep-seeded spirituality.

MEET US MONDAY

LEAH DETERT

I teach at All Saints because I have a special opportunity to inspire my students to find the music in their lives. It is fun to see students learn something new about music and the excitement they show. I also have the opportunity to teach students how to think, learn and grow in computer science education to enhance their readiness for the future.

LEARNING WITH A HIGHER PURPOSE

Family Ministry

February 19, 2023 • Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Matthew 5: 38-48 Be Perfect as Your Heavenly Father is Perfect

We find this reading from Matthew about a third of the way into Jesus' Sermon on the Mount. Jesus begins his teaching with the Beatitudes at the beginning of chapter five and for the next three chapters reveals his "code of conduct." This gospel offers some quite difficult challenges. We are told not to seek revenge; to turn the other cheek, and to walk the extra mile. Then comes the most difficult challenge of all. We are told to love our enemies and be perfect as our heavenly father is perfect.

When Jesus tells us to love our enemies that doesn't mean we are expected to have warm, fuzzy feelings toward them. In fact, we don't even have to like them, seek them out, or sit down to dinner with them. We are expected, however, to love them as God loves them. This means respecting them, wishing them no evil, and even praying for them.

This teaching offers us a chance to remind our children that it is not wrong to be angry at some-one. Anger is a feeling and, like all feelings, it is not sinful or wrong. It is what we do with those feeling that is important. It is our actions, angry words, and hurtful thoughts that get us into trouble. Teach your children to count to ten and say a prayer before walking away.

Jesus' second command, to "be perfect," sounds like an impossible challenge. How can we do this? The answer is hidden in the meaning of the word "perfect." The word comes from the Greek telei-os, meaning complete or whole. Simply put, Jesus wants us to become the wonderfully unique people we were created to be-and it doesn't take long to realize we'll need lots of help.

It is a lifetime of work to figure out and develop our talents. In the same lifetime, we need to learn which virtues come easily and which need more effort. On the journey of becoming our best selves, it doesn't take long to discover that without God's help, it is easy to get lost.

Only God is perfect. Only God is complete. However, if we are open to God's love, call on God's strength, and do our best to listen and live Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, one day we will get there. We will find our perfection; the person we were created to be, complete within the arms of the Divine.

You are Cordially Invited...

The readings for the Sunday liturgy are amazing. Each builds upon the last and together are a wonderful entry into the Season of Lent. In the Old Testament reading of Leviticus, God instructs Moses to remind the people that they are called to be holy. Why? Because God is holy and we are created in his image. When we look in a mirror, what do we focus on or see? We see our exterior being, complete with all it's human flaws and imperfections. But, look closer. You are an image of God. You are loved. What if everyday during this Lent, we look into the mirror and see not the exterior, but the interior heart of our being that God sees? What if we identify a few flaws and imperfections that we see in our heart and work everyday to make it just a little more holy than the last?

Paul, in his first letter to the Corinthians, reminds us of the same. "Brothers and sister: Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person, for the temple of God, which you are, is holy." Paul is telling us how much God loves us; to what lengths He will go to protect us. This Lent let us take extra time to sit in God's presence, whether it be praying at home, at Mass, or including Adoration or Stations of the Cross into your routine. And in His presence let us quietly feel the depth of God's love for us. Love is healing. Love transforms. In the book, Forgiveness - A Guide for Prayer by Jacqueline Syrup Bergan and Marie Schwan, CSJ, they remind us that "however transforming and life-giving human love may be, it is transcended by God's love for us."

In the Gospel reading, Jesus plays the trump card for our Lenten journey...and for our life. "You have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy. But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father..." Bergen and Schwan beautifully illustrate this thought: "In our human loving we are like blind people, tracing with tentative fingers the unseen features of the face of God. Within our fragile efforts to be consistent and faithful in our loving of each other, we catch a glimpse of the uniquely enduring quality of God's faithful love, a love made human for us in Jesus."

And so, I invite you to attend one of our Ash Wednesday liturgies as we begin the Lenten journey. Follow this by coming to Mass the weekend following (and then the next and the next...) If you know someone who has been absent or who is seeking God to come into their life, invite them to join you! Jesus' journey to the cross was one of love and sacrifice. "The love that shaped his death is the love that heals us, restores us and transforms us." This Lent, let us come together to be healed, to be restored and to be transformed. Praying with you always.
