A Prayer for Father's Day

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

You Are Cordially Invited...

Welcome to the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. But wait, what does “Ordinary” mean? We just completed the Easter Season, so can we just coast until Advent? Nothing big is happening, right? Well, we could, but it turns out that the liturgical term “ordinary” does not mean the same thing as the dictionary term “ordinary.” The USCCB states, “Ordinary Time is the interval in the life of the Church where much of the work of spiritual growth happens. “Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ. Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.”

So – no vacation time for us! We have work to do. But, where to start? Matthew’s Gospel for today gives us some good clues. “At the sight of the crowds, Jesus’ heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.” Sounds a lot like our world today, including our Church. Scandals, hatred, violence, the pandemic – so much has contributed to the loss of a heart like Jesus. The result of this can be seen each day, not just in the news, but in our communities and in our families. Many are just going through the motions; aimlessly filling time with no sense of purpose. “Then [Jesus] said to his disciples, “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.” God’s grace is more abundant than our minds could ever comprehend. But the number of people who are willing to share this message and this journey are dwindling. Fr. Mike in a recent Hallow podcast addressed this situation in saying that as a People of God, we have forgotten that love is not just a feeling - it is also an action. The USCCB states that “since we are created in the likeness of God, we exist as brothers and sisters in a shared human experience.” When we affectively love someone, “this relationship calls us to treat others with respect, value and a call to common dignity for ourselves and each other” thereby effectively creating a world where peace and collaboration abound.

“Then [Jesus] summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness.” Through our baptism and confirmation, we are given and then strengthened in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Each of us in individual portions is given spiritual gifts which empowers the individual to build up and serve the body of Christ. Robert Lillibridge, our Adult Formation Director will be rolling out a program this Fall to help all of us identify and then form a plan to use those spiritual gifts to serve others, our community and our world. More information will be coming soon.

And so, I invite you to Mass (and then the next and the next...) If you know someone who has been absent or who is seeking God to come into their life, invite them to join you! This can be an exciting and life transforming “ordinary time.” God has given and continues to give us so much. Let’s get to work!

Praying and hoping with you always.

Service to Others Metro Catholic Outreach

Here we are in Cedar Rapids, the “Cereal Capital of the World,” with Quaker, the world’s largest cereal plant, Ralston Foods, and General Mills. We have always had a good stock of cereal on hand in our pantry. For years our cereal shelves and the overflow shelves have always been FULL.

We have now lost our General Mills connection, as they are sending all their excess to HACAP, which feeds into all the food pantries in the area. Quaker suddenly has significantly fewer damaged pallets of product to pass on, also.

Each food box we have given out has had at least two cereals, four for the larger families. That’s nearly 200 boxes of cereal per week. If we need to begin purchasing, even off-brand cereal is at least $2.50 per box now. That’s $500 PER WEEK on cereal alone!

For now, we will cut back to one to two cereals per family in our food boxes. This comes at a very bad time with children out of school for the summer, eating more meals and snacks at home.

Please spread the word that cereal donations are needed. And if anyone wants to host a Cereal Drive for MCO...

Give Without Payment

Jesus continues to preach his message of forgiveness and love. As he looks out over the faces in the crowd, Scripture tells us his heart is moved because he sees so many people who are troubled and abandoned. "Like sheep without a shepherd," Jesus sees this as a universal problem and sends his apostles out into pagan lands to minister to all people.

The apostles were not lost sheep. They weren't troubled or abandoned. They had found their shepherd. Each day Jesus helped them see their individual gifts and worth. He nurtured them with love and compassion on a daily basis, and then he sent them out because the gifts God freely gives are meant to be shared. The apostles were not lost sheep. They weren't troubled or abandoned. They had found their shepherd. Each day Jesus helped them see their individual gifts and worth. He nurtured them with love and compassion on a daily basis, and then he sent them out because the gifts God freely gives are meant to be shared.

We have all been blessed with unique gifts and talents, and like the apostles we are expected to appreciate them and freely share them. Unfortunately, for me it is much easier to talk and write about this fact than it is to take it to heart.

Sometimes just accepting that I have a gift is a problem. People tell me how good my stew is, and I will tell them it was way too salty. The fact is I am a pretty good cook, but it has taken me years to learn how to say a simple "thank you" to the person who gives me a compliment.

The point is even if your only gift is that you can make the best goshdarned oatmeal in the world, you should have the grace to share it with whomever you can. If you were gifted with a college education or a good profession, you should try to do some pro-bono work, sharing those gifts with folks who need your help.

Finally, God has gifted us with the privilege of parenting—accept it and practice it by helping your children discover their own gifts. Like Jesus did for his apostles, help them see their individual gifts and worth. Nurture them with love and compassion on a daily basis. And finally, affirm, counsel and support them as they learn to develop and share their gifts with others.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Have each family member mention a gift of the other members. You might want to write responses down before you share. Practice saying thank you.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

What gift has God given you that you are most proud of? What gift would you like to develop more fully?
