“Abundance Beyond Measure”

The theme of this year’s stewardship campaign resonates with a spiritual resonance: “Abundance Beyond Measure.”

Drawing inspiration from the biblical narrative of Jesus miraculously feeding 5,000 souls, we perceive the profound symbolism within this event. Some view it as a multiplication of five loaves and two fish, while others see it as a manifestation of compassion.

In response to the divine call, those gathered emptied their pockets, unfurled their blankets, and delved into their possessions to generously meet the needs of the community. Remarkably, their offerings surpassed mere sufficiency, leaving twelve baskets brimming with abundance.

As we gather the offerings from our spiritual community as part of our annual stewardship, we find that there is indeed an overflow. This abundance not only covers our operational expenses but also extends generously to care for our neighbors and strategically plan for the future.

The journey commences with a thoughtful pledge, reflective of one’s spiritual capacities. Through this act, we cultivate an abundance that enables us to embody the welcoming, transformative spirit that God has called us to manifest in our community. Eucharistic Adoration on Monday Evenings During Advent Eucharistic Adoration is a Catholic devotion dating back to the early days of the Church. It involves the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and offers the faithful time to sit and pray in the presence of Jesus.

During Advent this year, there will be three opportunities to attend Eucharistic Adoration on Monday evenings. Please join us on December 4th, 11th, and 18th from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the chapel for this incredibly special time of prayerful meditation.

Second Sunday of Advent:

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

As we prepare for the birth of Jesus Christ at Christmas and also His second coming, we are reminded that Advent is a time of repentance. We not only need to ask for forgiveness but we also need to forgive those who we feel have trespassed against us.

What other ways can we prepare for Christmas? We can help those who are in need by donating to the food pantry, helping serve a meal or providing a gift from the Giving Tree at church. There are many ways that we can help those who are hungry, thirsty and alone. We can pray for peace, love and joy in our world. We have been baptized in the Holy Spirit. This gift guides us to live out our lives as followers of Christ.

Today we light the second purple candle. It is also called the "Bethlehem Candle" as a reminder of Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem. As we light the second candle, may the light of Jesus' presence bring us peace and joy.

Help Us Help You

As we celebrate the Christmas season, we kindly request scheduling appointments for in-person meetings with Parish Office staff due to the increased demand. This allows us to give your request the time and attention it deserves.

To streamline your experience, we have placed drop boxes for donations and Hy-Vee receipts at various locations around the parish. This provides a convenient alternative to visiting the office for non-urgent matters.

You Are Cordially Invited...

Welcome to the Second Sunday of Advent. Advent is very short this year. The Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve are the same day. Keeping that at the forefront of our efforts is an invitation, then, to be extra vigilant in our preparations.

It's easy to gloss over the significance of Mark's opening sentence. Prior to each reading during the liturgy, we proclaim the book from where it comes; so perhaps we see this in the same way. But, to do so is to miss several key ideas that sum up the entire book of Mark in one sentence. "The beginning" of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. Mark is telling us that like the Garden of Eden, where sin and separation from God was introduced into the world, the birth of Jesus Christ is another beginning of significance. With the birth of Jesus, salvation comes to the world through the repentance of sins which reunites us to God, our heavenly Father.

The beginning of the gospel of "Jesus Christ" the Son of God. Mary Healy in her book The Gospel of Mark says this, "Christ, or Messiah means anointed. To declare that Jesus is the Christ is to proclaim that he is the fulfillment of the hopes of Israel, the promised descendant of David who would reestablish the reign of God." An understanding of the Old Testament is helpful as we unpack the riches of Mark's Gospel. Today Mark reminds the reader that the prophet Isaiah had proclaimed that God would send a messenger that would prepare the way. I love how Mark reworks the Old Testament passage from a general announcement to the people of God to an intimate conversation between God and Jesus laying the groundwork for how the salvation of the world would unfold. "Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way." In so doing, Mark sets the stage that ties the old with the new. All of what will unfold in Mark's Gospel has always been a part of God's plan. I believe this is what Paul is referring to when he says, "Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise as some regard delay..." Ever since sin entered the world, God has had a plan to fully reunite us with Him. While we humanly have experienced this unfolding through centuries of human time, we are reminded today that we need to be vigilant and stay prepared. God's time is not our time.

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the "Son of God." Mark identifies Jesus as the second Person of the Trinity in his opening. Mary Healy writes, "From his very first line Mark lets readers in on the secret: Jesus is the long awaited Messiah, the Son of God in a unique and transcendent way." She continues later with, "Mark's evident joy at the tidings he has to share prompts the questions: Do we realize how good the good news is? Do we recognize that this news fulfills and surpasses all the deepest longings of the human heart? Or have we settled for a diluted version of the gospel that has little power to impact our daily lives?" Those are great questions to ask of ourselves and of our parish as we continue to unpack what we have learned through the process of the parish vitality study earlier this year. Do we want to be a parish that simply checks the box and come to Mass when it's convenient or do we want to allow God, through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, to transform our lives as we shout the Good News from the rooftops? What do we want our own lives to be? Powerful questions that all need to start with "preparing the way of the Lord" by "making straight his paths."

So as we conclude this reflection I am not going to pray that we have a good Advent, that is mediocre language suggesting that we just go through the motions. I am going to pray that we open our hearts, wrestle with the Word of God and through that process allow the amazing transformation of our lives to be People of God to happen. Mary Healy ends her reflection on this Gospel passage by stating, "God's entrance into human history in the person of Jesus Christ is news that is inexhaustibly new, as fresh and potent as on the day it was first proclaimed."

And so, I invite you to attend Mass this weekend (and then the next and the next...) If you know someone who has been absent, invite them to join you! Make the purposeful choice to attend weekend Mass (and daily if your schedule allows.) Let's give each other and the world the gift of prayer for Advent. Come, Lord Jesus! Praying with you always.

December 10, 2023 • 2nd Sunday of Advent • Mark 1:1-8

Prepare Your Way

Mark begins his Gospel by telling us about John the Baptist, Jesus' cousin. He describes him as a prophet and messenger sent to prepare the people for Jesus. John is rather strange. He lives in the desert, eats and dresses oddly, yet he has attracted a large group of followers. He tells them "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me" (v. 7).

John the Baptist tells his followers, "I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit" (v. 8). The "he" of course is Jesus, and the distinction John makes concerning baptism is important.

John's followers have repented and turned away from sin. He uses water to symbolize a cleansing from sin and a new beginning. Jesus' baptism presupposes the turning away from sin. His baptism not only marks the end of sin, but also the beginning of a new life, a life in pursuit of love and truth. When we are baptized we receive the Holy Spirit, who not only gives us new life but also blesses us with the gift we need to enter into that life.

Jesus' baptism points us in a new direction and inaugurates us into a new way of living. The gift of the Holy Spirit is an invitation to action. It is not enough to just repent from evil—we must also become actively involved in the pursuit of good. This is the baptism we received when the water that symbolizes both death and new beginning was poured over our heads.

Sometime this week take out the pictures of your child's baptism. Remind them that on that day they received Jesus' Spirit, and were given the special help they would need to be good and accomplish great things. Let them know that with the special gifts they received in baptism they could help to make the world a better place. Talk about some practical ways they could make a difference in someone else's life, and then schedule some time during your busy week to help them live out their baptismal gift.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Decide as a family on a kind act you can do for someone. Set the date you will accomplish the task on the calendar.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

What gifts do you need to continue to give yourself unselfishly to your family? Write a prayer asking God for this gift. What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?

December 5, 2023

Dear Parishioners, School Families, and Community supporters,

This communication is being shared as a final update to the important work of our schools and parishes as it relates to the Cedar Rapids metro task force recommendation of systemization and the Middle School exploratory study committee recommendation of consolidation. During the month of November the pastors have worked with great care and concern, specifically in regards to the future of the Cedar Rapids metro Catholic schools and the communities for which they serve. There was much careful consideration given to the process, concerns, and possible adjustments with a goal that consensus was achieved over the course of the discernment process.

It is with much thanksgiving and gratitude to all those involved in any aspect of this process, most especially the pastors who have dedicated much time and discernment, that we share the results of that work.

It has been decided that it is in the long term best interest of parishes and Catholic education in the metro area for all the Catholic schools to become a system; all schools will now join together as a single corporation and represent Xavier Catholic Schools in an official capacity beginning July 1, 2024.

It has been decided that it is in the long term best interest for LaSalle Catholic and Regis Middle School to become a consolidated 6-8 middle school at a location to be determined, as part of the Xavier Catholic Schools system.

Given the results of these efforts, the following work will begin immediately:

- Identification of process to create the new Xavier Catholic Schools school board
- Identification of process for central office leadership hiring
- Feasibility study about current and possible future locations for a 600 person 6-8 middle school. St. Joseph will remain a PK-8 building for a minimum of five years, at which time system needs will be reassessed.

Additionally, the following timeline will be utilized, and adapted as necessary, to ensure progress towards the official systemization date of July 1, 2024. Monthly communications will be shared around the 15th of each month to update our communities on this process.

- December: Subsidy Formula Committee begins work
- January: Constitution and Consolidation Agreement are drafted; XCS School Board created; Central Office hiring begins
- February: Constitution and Consolidation agreements are signed; Middle School Location Feasibility Study begins
- March: Central Office hires continue; New Corporate Documents are drafted
- April: Central Office and Contact Information communicated
- May: Middle School Location Feasibility Study report available
- June: Current school boards hold last meeting
- July: New system officially begins

We offer our gratitude for the important work of the Cedar Rapids area Catholic communities and extend prayers for continued efforts as work is done to continually enhance the faith filled educational offerings through a unified system. Please be assured that you and your family remain in our thoughts and prayers.

Upcoming monthly communications will lay out work and provide answers to frequently asked questions. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please reach out to your local building administrator.

Countless blessings to you and your family this holiday season,

Cedar Rapids Metro Task Force Leadership Team
