Why Should I Attend?

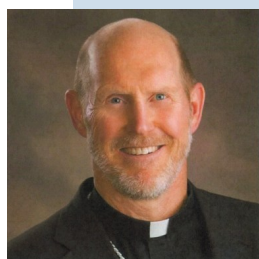

Attending these meetings will give you background about the challenges we face and the opportunities we have to be honest, courageous, faithful, and hopeful. Your ideas about how we can have vibrant and sustainable parishes focused on evangelization for the next 25+ years is very important as future plans are developed. While these September meetings are information focused, they set the stage for parishioners to provide thoughtful verbal feedback at local parish input sessions in October and November and written feedback via the Journey in Faith website.

In order to have sufficient materials for all those who attend, please register here.

What Will be the Focus of These Meetings?

Participants will learn more about:

- Rationale, process, and timeline for Journey in Faith
- Importance of prayer and synodal listening in this process
- Proposed pastorate models as possible new groupings of parishes for the future

“I truly believe the Holy Spirit is calling us forward - to TRUST each other, to TRANSFORM our Church, and to do it TOGETHER. If we walk this path with courage, with faith, and with love - listening to one another and to God - we can renew our Church and build something lasting for generations to come.”

Archbishop Zinkula

Journey in Faith

Trust. Transform. Together.

What if I'm unable to attend a September regional meeting or registration in my region reaches capacity?

If you are unable to attend a September regional meeting, you are urged to review all of the information on the website including videos, maps, and spreadsheets that will be released in early September. This will enable you to have background prior to attending your own local parish's meetings in October and November. Although the September meetings will not be live streamed, a summary video with key points from those meetings about prayer and synodal listening will be released at the end of September.

What if I don't have internet access but would like to attend one of the informational meetings?

There will be a table in the Narthex set up for those who do not have internet access. A paper form will be available to enter your name and which session you would like to attend. The Parish Staff Team will then input this information for you.

What if I have information I would like to share with the Journey in Faith Core Team for the Archdiocese?

On the Journey in Faith website there is a link for a Feedback Form (purple button on the top right side of the website.) Click on this and enter any feedback you wish to share. You may use this feedback form as many times as you would like. Please remember that constructive comments will help us as we walk this Journey in Faith.

What is the role of Journey in Faith Parish Team Members and who are they?

Journey in Faith Team Members are parishioners selected by the pastor/PLC to help facilitate the feedback process at the parish. Their role is to impartially record and submit the feedback of the parishioners at their parish meetings to the Journey in Faith Core Team. They are advocates for parishioners to be engaged in the process. Local Journey in Faith Team Members are not decision makers in this process. All decisions will ultimately be made by Archbishop Zinkula.

Stewardship Corner

God created us to be in relationship with Him. Sin broke that relationship. Jesus came to earth so that we may reconcile our relationship with God. Following Jesus' example, we can be blessed with a joy-filled life on earth and eternal life in Heaven. This core message is the basis for the Stewardship of our Catholic faith. How do you live this out in your daily life?

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Are you aware that 2.5 billion tons of food is wasted annually? Or that millions of people around the world go to bed hungry every night? Food waste is one of the biggest ways we can directly impact climate change.

Did you know that food travels an average of 1,500 miles and that Americans throw away between 40% to 50% of it? The amount of food wasted is absurd, but it is not only the food which is being wasted. Consider the fuel used in harvesting and transporting the food and the large amounts of water used to grow it.

For the Married Couples

"...so must the Son of Man be lifted up..." (John 3:14). The cross represents the totality of Christ's self-emptying love, broken and shared. It is not simply an instrument of death, but has become the means by which we are given abundant life. If we love as Jesus loves, we will not escape our own crosses. How might you help your spouse carry their cross today?

Young at Heart

Come join All Saints' Church members for the Young at Heart Luncheon on Wednesday, September 17 at noon in the Social Hall. The speaker this month is All Saints' own Bob Lillibridge. Bob will give his insights and talk about some of the plans and programs that he would like to implement in the parish for this year and in the future. There is no cost for lunch.

Save the Date!

The semi-annual All Saints Blood Drive is right around the corner. Join us in the lower level on the morning of Saturday, October 25th. Keep an eye on the bulletin and Facebook as registration information is made more available. Come save a life with us!

St. Jude Church Parish Mission with Jon Leonetti

St. Jude Church will be hosting renowned Catholic speaker and author, Jon Leonetti, for our annual Parish Mission on Sunday, September 21 and Monday, September 22 both at 6:30 PM. Childcare will be provided for children ages 3-12 onsite both evenings from 6:00 - 8:15 PM. All are welcome to attend a free Pasta Bar dinner on Sunday from 5:00 - 6:00 PM before the talk. There is no cost for the dinner, but please RSVP to ensure there is enough for everyone. Registration for both childcare and the dinner is available at <https://judes.org/parish-mission-2025>. Questions may be directed to the parish office at 319-390-3520.

Ad Altare Dei Catholic Scouting Religious Emblem

The purpose of the Ad Altare Dei (to the altar of God) program is to help Catholic Youth develop a fully Christian way of life in the faith community. The program is designed for Scouts ages 13-14 years old, but all Scouts up to 18 years old and Venture Scouts up to their 21st birthday can attend. The program is organized in chapters based on the seven Sacraments. The seven Sacraments are a primary means toward spiritual growth. Participants must also attend a retreat and participate in a group service project.

Sessions will be held at All Saints Catholic Church on Sundays from 4:00 to 5:30 PM for eight weeks, beginning Sep. 14, 2025 and ending on November 2, 2025. The retreat and Board of Review will be held on Sunday, November 16 from 1:00 to 5:00 pm. To register for this event go to <https://mycouncil.hawkeyescouting.org/Event/5323/Register>. Service to Others

Metro Catholic Outreach

Healthy Kids Iowa MCO's Final Numbers

Metro Catholic Outreach played a major part in this new summer program, getting summer food to school children in need. Families who depend on school meals for a major portion of their nutrition were able to shop in our pop-up pantry three times this summer. MCO was one of several locations throughout our area.

The last Thursdays of June, July, and August were our nights to shine. Many volunteers helped deliver and unload food, set up the temporary pantry, greeted families as they arrived, helped complete paperwork, shopped with the parents, and even carried out the groceries to their cars.

Our site alone served 180 families — 553 kids this summer! The clients were all so appreciative, excited, and grateful to receive this bonus food. It was such a pleasure to assist these students and their families, but it was the couple of dozen volunteers who made this all happen!

Calling All Pie Bakers!

The Haiti Committee is once again looking for volunteers to bake apple pies for the annual Run for Pie 5K run/walk and half-mile kids fun run [Saturday, September 20 at 9:00 a.m. in Lisbon]. We award the top three runners in each division with apple pies, which means we need almost 60 pies! To sign up, go to www.runforpie.com and click on the 'volunteer' tab – OR – email Tina Lampe (TinaML416@hotmail.com). You can also sign up for other volunteer spots, like course monitoring (training provided). And, if you're a runner or walker, sign up to participate in the event and join the fun!

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive

The Knights of Columbus will be conducting their annual Tootsie Roll Drive at all weekend masses Sept 20th & 21st. 100% of donations collected will go to charities supporting People with Intellectual Disabilities. With the combined efforts of all the KC Councils in the metro area, over $40,000 is collected each year. Please give what you can to support this campaign.

Knights of Columbus "Coats for All" Collection Drive

Our annual "Coats for All" drive will begin the last weekend of September and continue through the first two weeks of October. This effort supports several family organizations in the area in supplying those in need with winter clothing. Thank You for supporting the Knights in these efforts. Please don't forget those hats, ear coverings, mittens, and gloves.

Everyday Metanoia

Welcome to the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. “With their patience worn out by the journey, the people complained against God and Moses, ‘Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in this desert, where there is no food or water? We are disgusted with this wretched food!’” The first few verses from our first reading from Numbers is a lament that I hope not to hear from All Saints parishioners, especially those who do not participate in the information and feedback sessions which are a part of our Journey in Faith efforts. Quite frankly, this work is exhausting, and even overwhelming at times. Who would have thought that within a few short months of All Saints accepting the challenge and the grace of being a parish under a different leadership model, that we would be immersed in plans to group individual churches into larger pastorates? But that is not where our patience is being tried, is it? It is in the potential loss of our individual identity as a viable parish complete with a full-time pastor and weekend Masses that is the source of our heads spinning, our shoulders sagging and our feet trudging. When we allow the poison of the ego to infest our souls and focus solely on ourselves, this is when patience wanes and the complaints rise.

God has been with All Saints on its wonderful life from Masses offered in parishioner homes to the initial building of a school with a gathering space for liturgies. Many pastors have led All Saints through periods of growth and periods of stillness, through times of building and times of maintenance, though opportunities where the Holy Spirit was active and alive in the life of the parish and the parishioners and times where we grieved the loss of members through death, moves and falling away. What is starkly evident from Scripture and our Catholic Tradition is that God is faithful and constant; we are the ones who are unfaithful, inconsistent and centered upon ourselves. In the history of All Saints Parish - God is always here; we are the ones who are absent, in greater numbers as each year passes.

The work of the Journey in Faith Team, the participation of all in the informational and feedback sessions and indeed, our prayers all are oriented to doing our very best to keep weekend Masses at All Saints and to be recognized as the viable parish that we are and can continue to be. But if that is not the outcome, then what? Yes, I, too, will be saddened initially by the loss of what has been my “home” for the better part of my life. We all grieve and mourn when one part of our life closes: childhood; high school; college life; various work opportunities, marriage; parenthood; and the loss of our own human parents. As each stage of life is transitioned to the next, there is that moment when we know loss. God, why did you move me to this city for a job? My friends, my support system, all of what I knew and was comfortable with - none of it is here! God, why did our parish lose its weekend Mass? I don’t know anyone at this church, none of the songs are familiar and I miss my pew! Sounds a lot like our reading from Numbers today.

Losing weekend Masses is one alternative that I hope and pray does not come to fruition. But if it does, then what? Do we just become a lot of complaining people, satisfied with nothing and ready to sever our connections, not just with All Saints, by turning to another faith tradition; but with God entirely? “In punishment the LORD sent among the people saraph serpents, which bit the people so that many of them died.” God is always present, ready to take our hand, but we have to make the effort to reach out and grasp his, also; God does not force our will. The ego in thinking only of ourselves is the saraph serpent in our lives. If we allow it to bite us, to control our hearts, then, we, too, will die. Before any of us begin to walk down this path, or even if we have taken a few steps in this direction, let’s focus on the image and foreshadowing from the remainder of our first reading: “Then the people came to Moses and said, ‘We have sinned in complaining against the LORD and you. Pray the LORD to take the serpents from us.’ So Moses prayed for the people, and the LORD said to Moses, ‘Make a saraph and mount it on a pole, and if any who have been bitten look at it, they will live.’” The serpent has been our universal symbol of sin and evil since the time of Adam and Eve. This sin, the sin of the ego, thinking that we know better than God, bites us continually during our human existence on earth. But God already had a plan; a plan where “sin” died upon a cross in order to secure salvation for us. Jesus became sin for all and his death on the cross saved us all.

Come to Mass at All Saints every weekend, whether that has been the past reality or not. Come. Come and look at the cross. There is a reason that as Catholics, we don’t just lift up the cross. We lift high Jesus on the cross. As Catholics we exalt and shout for joy not by reflecting on an empty cross, but in knowing that God loves us so much, no matter what, that he sacrificed his only begotten Son for us! “Moses accordingly made a bronze serpent and mounted it on a pole, and whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.” No matter the outcome of the informational and feedback sessions, our focus and sight should be on faithfully serving God. Be a part of our Journey in Faith. Let’s sweat, toil and pray as Chosen People of God. Come Holy Spirit!

Praying with you always, Tracy Huk, Parish Life Coordinator

Journey in Faith Prayer

Lord Jesus,
You accompanied your disciples on the way to Emmaus.
As we journey in faith,
we trust in your Spirit
to open our eyes
to set our hearts on fire
and to transform our parishes.
Make yourself known to us
through breaking open word and bread,
that we may travel together on mission:
to grow disciples, cultivate leaders, and
unify parishes,
with our journey ending in You,
who live and reign forever and ever.

Amen.

Metro Catholic Outreach Calling All Volunteers

Can you give a couple of hours once or twice per month to help those with food insecurity right here in our city?

Our volunteer shifts only last about two hours, morning or afternoon, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, or Thursdays.

Our pantry volunteers organize incoming donations, check expiration dates, stock shelves, bag up snacks, toiletries, produce, and pack the food boxes.

Our distribution volunteers add the fresh items to the food boxes on the dock, greet our clients as they arrive to pick up their groceries, and help load the cars.

Our volunteers in the office answer the door and phones, schedule clients for their food pick-ups, assemble and distribute the homeless bags, organize clothing donations and other supplies.

We are in need of more volunteers, in the pantry, the distribution dock, and in the office. We promise you will never be bored!

Contact us if you would like a tour and maybe try out a shift to see if it is a cause you would enjoy. You won't regret giving your time to help families in need! 319-739-5490.

From Principal Starr

Dear Families,

After our second week of school, I'd anticipate children coming home extra tired this Friday afternoon. Believe it or not, next week is already Homecoming Week at Xavier HS. Please note the dress day communication sent out this week. If your child chooses to not participate in our special dress days, please send them to school in normal dress code attire.

A big thank you to our volunteers that have helped to support our lunchroom to begin the year. We are still looking for volunteers to support throughout the school day. If you are interested in spending time in our library, out at recess, or with our littlest in the Early Learning Center, please reach out to Mrs. Collins regarding how to become a school volunteer.

Enjoy another beautiful fall weekend!

In Faith,

Ms. Starr

Principal, All Saints Elementary

Grandparents Day

Grandparents Day is coming on Oct 3, 2025. Students can invite grandparents or special friends to join them in a prayer service, take a tour of their classroom, get a picture taken together, and adopt a book. Refreshments will be served. More information and volunteer opportunities are coming soon.

Metro Catholic Outreach Weekend Snack Bags

You can now sign up for a weekly backpack snack bag. Metro Catholic Outreach (MCO) provides snack bags for children which contains food items for students. If you would like your child to receive a bag at the end of the week, please sign up here. This is a free service from MCO. These bags will be distributed at school. More information will be sent to you upon sign up.

Living in the Light

John's Gospel talks a lot about light and darkness. In the very first paragraph of his Gospel, John tells us that Jesus is the light of the world. John makes it very clear that we must live in the light, live in Jesus, if we are to have eternal life.

In this reading we hear the famous quote from John 3:16 that we see so often cited by Christian fans at football games: Jesus came, “so that everyone who believes in him may not perish, but may have eternal life.” It is important to note that the eternal life Jesus offers us is not just a heavenly kingdom after we die—eternal life means much more.

The life we were born with is limited and finite. We know that every breath we take brings us closer to our physical deaths. The years and gravity take their toll on us, but what Jesus offers us is life outside of time and gravity. It is beyond the wounds and handicaps of our physical world, but it is also very much here and now.

Jesus offers us his life—life with, and in the Triune God in whom we believe. We come to this divine life by fully embracing our human life, just as Jesus did. We accept the limitedness of our humanity with all the pain and joy that entails. We do not suppress our human nature but engage in it fully, always drawn to the light that is Jesus.

We are asked to live each day in the truth of our eternal life so that “...it may be clearly seen that [our] deeds have been done in God” (John 3:21). There is no dichotomy—no spiritual above physical life. Teach your children to value the finite world, especially themselves, body, mind and spirit—one package—loved by God with all its blemishes.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Take turns telling what you like about each other. Talk about each person's physical as well as spiritual qualities.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

It is so important to always tell our children the truth. Their trust in us, and sometimes their trust in others later in life, is dependent on it. How good are you at always telling the truth? What do you want to remember from last week? What are you looking forward to next week? What are your concerns?
